

FULL-DAY FOODIE DELIGHT IN LIMA

A full day full of explosive exquisite flavors in the neighborhoods of Lima, which is renowned for its Peruvian Cuisine.

The tour takes you to the different sides of the cosmopolitan city strolling through the various districts of Chorillos, Barranco, Miraflores, and San Isidro. Mingle with the locals on this particular day and eat their favorite dishes. Stroll around the large bustling Surquillo Market, one of the most authentic and best markets in Lima, located a few blocks from Park Kennedy in Miraflores. Now you will become a local and act as if you are the shopper as well, visiting the various stalls of fresh fruit, vegetables, herbs, meat, fish, seafood, and other hard-to-find products. Take a stroll around Chorillos where you will see many fishermen fishing from their small boats and the many local restaurants selling fresh seafood like the famous Ceviche (seafood dish) that will fill your senses and then enjoy a brisk walk around the lovely Bohemian Barranco district, where most of the famous artists of Peru reside and have a fresh organic aromatic cup of coffee. Visit many old taverns in Lima around Miraflores and the back alleys to taste street foods with their flavorful ingredients. A true foodie experience in Lima where your sense of taste comes alive!
